War Bond Sales To Be Stimulated By 'Minute Maids'

If you are approached tomorrow morning at Larchmont station by a comely miss intent on selling you War Bonds and Stamps, chances are she'll be one of the group of Larchmont girls, captained by Miss Jeanne Bevier. The Minute Maids, organized during the Fourth War Loan Drive, by Miss Bevier, will be on hand to meet all commuters trains, during this drive. Co-captained by Miss Nancy Cullen, the girls include the Misses Katherine Carr, Ethel Purcell, Edmee Schaefer, Gloria Stanchfield, Kari Homestead, Ethel Donnovan, Alice Jane Golden, and Aileen Shields.

Expanding the group to 24 girls, the Minute Maids will usher at Friday night's "Gay Nineties Revue" at Mamaroneck Junior High School. Additional members are Mrs. James Ellis, Mrs. Herbert Dowsett, Jr. Mrs. Stewart McGovern, the Misses Mary Blake, Beatrice Meckauer, Lorna Tuck, Colleen Tuck, Alida Reinhardt, Elizabeth Oliver, Barbara Burns, Barbara Bigelow, Rosemary Golden, Geraldine Daly, Dorothy Dimond, and Lois Abbink.

Tickets for Friday night may be purchased at Larchmont banks, railroad station, stores and at Mamaroneck Junior High.

of marriage Tuesday with a party at their home. —Staff Photo

MINUTE MAIDS who will appear tomorrow on a tandem bicycle at the Gay Nineties Review, sponsored by the Women's Division of the Larchmont War Finance committee at Mamaroneck Junior High School are Lois Abbink, left, and Jeanne Bevier, right, captain of the maids. The St. Bernard puppy enjoying the ride on Miss Bevier's handlebars is Count of Fenbrook.

—Photo by Berringer

Miss Farrington Becomes Bride Of Lt. Louis Parent

Miss Madelyn Farrington, daughter of Grace R. Farrington of 24

County ORT Unit Slates Meeting In Harrison Home

Westchester Women's ORT study group under the chairmanship of

Larchmont Times, June 15, 1944 p. 8