Dear Mr. Marsella,
Thank you so much for visiting our class yesterday. Your presentation was outstanding and I learned a lot. I got so much out of what you said - thank you for sharing it with us even though it's a hard topic. I am so grateful for your bravery. Hearing you speak about your experiences really gave me a new perspective on the topic and I will never forget. We were lucky to have you visit us, Thank again.

Your friend,
Marian Williams

Dear Mr. Marsella,

Thank you so much for coming to talk to us about your experiences in World War II. You were great. Your story was amazing. The story about the death of your brother was really sad but I'm glad that you made it back home. I think it's really amazing that you served in Italy and survived bombing and shooting for years. Thanks again. What we have here today is because of you. I hope to see you at St. Vitas Church soon!

Love,

Emma Chiappetta
