

RVICES 000 TO HURCHES

Featured As
al For Re-
Faith

00 worshippers
s in Larchmont
chilly morning
the resurrection

re filled to ca-
ices, which fea-
usic. beautiful and sermons.

ature hovering
ing mark, 130
the dawn serv-archmont Ave-
nor Park. More

the 11 o'clock
t the church.
tal of 2,700 at-
St. Augustine's
500 filled St.
Church.

h and the de-
oul were stres-
the preachers

tyranny and it be in state,
rt, laboratories
id the Rev. J. ohn's Episcopal
t, "tends to kill
st, the forward
ushing impulse kingdom and

ANNE KATHLEEN CULLEN

* * *

LIEUT. CHARLES L. BERRY

DE VFAII NAMED

2 OF WAR DEAD EN ROUTE BACK TO LARCHMONT

Bodies of Anne Cullen and Lieut. Berry Arrive
Late This Week

The bodies of Anne Kathleen Cullen and Second Lieut. Charles L. Berry of Larchmont are due to arrive this week in New York aboard the U. S. Army Transports Robert F. Burns and John L. McCarley, respectively, which are carrying the remains of more than 5,000 men and women who gave their lives in the fighting in Europe.

The Robert F. Burns is expected to dock this afternoon at Pier 3, Brooklyn Army Base. Services will be held at 11 A. M. Friday before the bodies are removed. The John L. McCarley is scheduled to arrive Sunday.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Cullen of 11 Woodbine Avenue, Miss Cullen was the first woman war casualty reported in this area. She was killed while serving at an Army hospital in Belgium when it was struck by a Nazi flying bomb Dec. 20, 1944.

Lieut. Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Berry of 21 North Chatsworth Avenue, was killed in action June 12, 1944, in France, six days after the D-Day invasion. He was serving with the 29th Infantry Division.

CH

Sullivan
Di

"The
will be at the Public
at 8:30
of the

The s noted e cutive
Institut
Sullivan
the Ne

ranny and
it be in state,
art, laboratories
said the Rev. J.
John's Episcopal
ont, "tends to kill rist, the forward
pushing impulse al kingdom and ht mankind up
g him up and on dom of God.
at was in Jesus
every crucifixion," nued. "But if in sis we allow the ism to affect an-
, progress toward and good will be set back some
rs. For our own
'no other reason,
he inner struggle
ore of the power of the risen ghting on both check the spread
loitation, slavery, dictatorship and
of individual in-

current condi-
d throughout the
'The Recovery of
y the Rev. Floyd
the Larchmont
'Modern men are ldst of spiritual l confusion," he rn man is the power than any en ever held in
at the same time
, a greater fear,
doubt and be-
his Christian
on this Easter Christians are the faith of the
; that we may sform the civili-

onter

LIEUT. CHARLES L. BERRY

DE VEAU NAMED POLICE SERGEANT

Disabled Vet Appointed At Salary of $3,840;
Served 12 Years

The Board of Police Commissioners last week appointed Patrolman Eugene DeVeau as sergeant in the Town Police Department, effective April 1, at an annual salary of $3,840.

Sgt. DeVeau, a disabled veteran of World War II, was first appointed to the department in 1936. He left Nov. 23, 1942, to enter the Army. As a corporal, he served with the 12th and 15th Army Air Forces in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations. After three years of service, he returned to the Town Police Department in November, 1945.

Born in New Rochelle, the son of the late Samuel DeVeau and Mrs. Mary DeVeau of the Chatsworth Gardens Apartments, he has resided in Larchmont for the last 32 years. Sgt. DeVeau attended St. Augustine's Parochial School and was graduated from Iona School in 1926.

Sgt. DeVeau went to work with his late father, who was in the building and construction business, in 1926. Mr. DeVeau died in 1934.

serving at an Army hospital in Belgium when it was struck by a Nazi flying bomb Dec. 20, 1944.

Lieut. Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Berry of 21 North Chatsworth Avenue, was killed in action June 12, 1944, in France, six days after the D-Day invasion. He was serving with the 29th Infantry Division.

Born in Baltimore in June, 1918, Miss Cullen came to Larchmont as an infant. She was graduated from Ursuline School in New Rochelle and attended Georgian Court College in New Jersey and the Art Students' League and the Traphagen School in New York City. She was a member of St. Augustine's Church, where she sang with the choir, and was a yachting enthusiast, sailing in Star and International Class races on the Sound.

She began training for foreign Red Cross service in June, 1943, after serving with the Westchester A.R.C. Motor Corps and the British - American Ambulance Corps in New York City. Following a training period in Washington, D. C., she left for duty in England, and had been serving in Normandy and other sections of France before her last assignment.

Surviving, in addition to her parents, are a sister, Nancy, and two brothers, Vincent, Jr., teaching in college as a missionary in the Philippines, and Robert, a Navy veteran, who is also studying for the priesthood in Pennsylvania.

A high requiem mass will be said at an as yet undetermined date, with interment to follow at Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Valhalla, where the family will erect a mausoleum in her memory.

Lieut. Berry lived at Lakewood, Ohio, before coming to Larchmont. He was graduated from Lakewood High School and Public at 8: of the The noted cutive Instit Sulliv the N Again Mr. Larch meeti Octob Russia He resent which Las memo dell V ced House its m year.

"As many porta for Cherr uniqu with vance fight Mr. gener report tee o their at t crisis steps helpin the perfo

As Instit servic prets more busin

A analy Cheri tribut has current condition throughout the "The Recovery of by the Rev. Floyd the Larchmont "Modern men are midst of spiritual d confusion," he ern man is the e power than any ien ever held in at the same time y a greater fear, d doubt and be- n his Christian on this Easter : Christians are the faith of the us that we may nsform the civili- /."

onter Honors College

ed Baughman, and Mrs. J. Stan- of 34 Flint Ave- has been elected Club, honorary 1 College, Cham- where she is a junior class. of the election week at a special rvice, where nine arded the Candle ned to resemble with a diamond flame. The pin ughman was first), and has been junior class stu- Members are se- qualities of sin- and scholarship their classmates. an, who arrived to spend the

Sgt. DeVean, a disabled veteran of World War II, was first appointed to the department in 1936. He left Nov. 23, 1942, to enter the Army. As a corporal, he served with the 12th and 15th Army Air Forces in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations. After three years of service, he returned to the Town Police Department in November, 1945.

Born in New Rochelle, the son of the late Samuel DeVean and Mrs. Mary DeVean of the Chatsworth Gardens Apartments, he has resided in Larchmont for the last 32 years. Sgt. DeVean attended St. Augustine's Parochial School and was graduated from Iona School in 1926.

Sgt. DeVean went to work with his late father, who was in the building and construction business, in 1926. Mr. DeVean died in 1934.

In 1938, while a member of the Police Department, Sgt. DeVean was cited by the Board of Police Commissioners for an arrest.

In 1946, he married the former Mary Dennedy of Massachusetts. They reside at the Chatsworth Gardens Apartments, Larchmont.

Hardesty to Attend Meeting of Engineers

Shortridge Hardesty, 12 Cambridge Court, Larchmont, will attend the Spring meeting of the American Society of Civil Engineers, of which he is a national director, in Pittsburgh, April 7-9. He will also attend Board of Direction meetings starting April 5, preceding the Spring meeting.

Eight technical sessions are scheduled at the meeting in Hotel William Penn, in which more than 800 members of the 95-year-old society, oldest national engineering organization in the country, will discuss highways, waterways, air transport, city planning and other engineering subjects.

Following a training period in Washington, D. C., she left for duty in England, and had been serving in Normandy and other sections of France before her last assignment.

Surviving, in addition to her parents, are a sister, Nancy, and two brothers, Vincent, Jr., teaching in college as a missionary in the Philippines, and Robert, a Navy veteran, who is also studying for the priesthood in Pennsylvania.

A high requiem mass will be said at an as yet undetermined date, with interment to follow at Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Valhalla, where the family will erect a mausoleum in her memory.

Lieut. Berry lived at Lakewood, Ohio, before coming to Larchmont. He was graduated from Lakewood High School and Dartmouth College, where he was a member of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity.

Before enlisting in July, 1942, he was associated with Montgomery Ward in New York City.

Following basic training at Camp Croft, S. C., he was stationed at Camp Claiborne, La., Hill Military Reservation, Fredericksburg, Va., and Camp McCoy, Wisc. He received his commission at Fort Benning, Ga., Feb. 5, 1943, and went overseas in January, 1944.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are his wife, the former Jean Kolbe of New Rochelle, and a daughter, Lynne, 4.

Funeral plans are incomplete.

Resident Fined $10 On Speeding Charge

Mrs. Margaret Namacher of 17 Linden Street, Larchmont, was fined $10 Friday morning by Acting Judge Hunter Meighan in Mamaroneck Police Court for speeding.

uniqu with vance fight Mr genei repor tee c their at t crisis steps helpi the perfo As Instit servic prets more busin A analy Cheri tribul has Meeti of Cl radio Mr in 19 tions Tokyo and 1 He starti singe Comp ary s and e corre perio was : an a a for of Ge of Fe at th searc

MR