

Phi Gamma Delta's "Gold Star" men in World War II

Five hundred and six members of Phi Gamma Delta gave their lives in the service of their countries in World War II. Of these, 317 were killed in action, died of wounds or lost their lives as prisoners. The remaining 190 were killed in non-battle accidents or died of natural causes while in the service.

DARTMOUTH (12)

Charles Latimer Berry, 1935, infantry lieutenant, KIA 6-12-44 in Normandy.

Ambrose Francis Broughton, 1943

Robert Owen Burns, Jr., 1942

David Richardson Dunlap, 1942

Carl Otto Fischer, 1935

John Gardner Fowler, 1920

James McFadden Hays, 1944

Theodore Knapp Johnson, 1939

Robert Earle Mulhern, 1944

Ford Kent Sayre, 1933, army captain; killed in air accident 7-24-44 at Spokane, Washington.

William Gilbert Werner, 1941

Stanley Proctor Wright, 1942