Dear Mr. Dolan:

The Army Effects Bureau has received from a Graves Registration Officer overseas three keys, some souvenir coins and funds, belonging to your brother, Sergeant Charles F. Dolan.

These personal effects were found on Sergeant Dolan's remains at the time of disinterment. The funds represent the converted value of foreign currency which was in his possession at the time of casualty. Due to the circumstances of recovery, one of the keys is damaged by rust and the coins are slightly tarnished.

I will appreciate your completion of the inclosed form to enable disposition of the funds. Also, please advise me whether you wish the keys and coins sent you. If so, they will be forwarded with an Army Effects Bureau check covering the above-mentioned funds.

For your convenience, there is inclosed a self-addressed return envelope which requires no postage.
