Sgt. Dolan Dead In Australia

War Department Notifies Family Of Death Of Larchmont Resident

WITH U. S. AIR CORPS

Sgt. Charles F. Dolan of 35 Hillcrest Avenue, Larchmont, died Dec. 19, near Rockhampton, Queensland, Australia, according to a telegram received Thursday by his brother, Herbert Dolan, of Woodside, Queens, L. I. No details connected with his death were released by the War Department.

Sgt. Dolan, who was 38 years old, was born in New Rochelle, graduated from Evander Childs High School in New York and lived for 20 years in Larchmont before entering the service. A former employe of Dunn and Bradstreet in New York, he enlisted in the Air Corps May 15, 1942, and received training in Miami, Fla., Jefferson Barracks, Mo., and San Francisco, Calif. He has been overseas since August, 1942.

He leaves another brother, Staff Sgt. William H. Dolan of Larchmont, who is now serving with the United States Army in Italy. He made his home in Larchmont with his brother and sister-in-law at the Hillcrest Avenue address before entering the service.

NARDICK BALOZIAN, JR., above, son of Mrs. M. L. Balozian of 38 Larchmont Avenue, Larchmont, and the late Mr. Balozian, has completed his basic training at the United States Naval Training Station at Sampson, N. Y., and has been transferred to Pensacola, Fla., where he will attend photography school for the next four months.

Walkout Ends As Union Officials Yield To WLB

PITTSBURGH, (AP) — Striking workers began returning to the mills today, signalling an end to the big steel strike that threatened a crisis in the nation's war production.

A back-to-work movement was set in motion quickly by officials of the United Steel Workers Union (CIO) after the War Labor Board in Washington voted a guarantee of pay retroactive to the union in expiring contracts affecting 500,000 workers in 500 companies.

From all sections of the great steel producing areas came reports showing workers were preparing to resume production. Many hundreds worked on midnight shifts this morning, entering the mills less than two hours after the sudden termination of the deadlock.

After hearing of the labor board's action, President Philip Murray issued directions to the union to continue "uninterruptedly the production of steel," calling off, in effect, the walkout which had cut off

Turns To Duty

Sgt. Lawrence McLoughlin is stationed at the Bronx General Hospital after spending a night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McLoughlin of 418 Prospect, Village.

Basic Training

J. Feeney, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Feeney of Prospect Avenue, Village, is Pittsburgh, Detroit and Columbus. Some pickets at an idle Columbus plant carried signs reading "No contract—no work"—the slogan of coal miners in their 1941 work stoppages.

Worst Since 1937 It was the first serious strike in the industry since 1937 when widespread walkouts, marked by rioting and bloodshed, occurred in the so called "Little Steel" plants.

President Roosevelt, in his appeal for settlement, requested the companies and the union to continue uninterrupted production una large corps of specialists to take over the administration of each conquered city as soon as the military forces leave.

Christmas party last week when gifts were exchanged among the members.

Walter Seely, Rotary district governor, will pay an official visit to the organization Friday and all officers, directors and committee chairmen are asked to meet him at the Larchmont Lodge, at 10 A. M. prior to the regular meeting.

Holiday Call

Larchmont and Mamaroneck were kept on the alert Christmas Day by a telephoned warning from Westchester Deputy Director Capt. Rossiter Holbrook.

The units were not mobilized, but the central control and chiefs of all the units were notified to stand by in case of emergency.
